What are my obligations?

- You must be fully truthful in your answers to questions we ask and give us any documents we ask for.
- You and the driver of your car must take all reasonable steps to avoid injury, loss or damage.
- You must keep your car in a safe and roadworthy condition and lock it when it is unattended.
- You must not submit any claim that is fraudulent or exaggerated.
- You must notify us of any incident that might result in a claim as soon as it occurs.
- You must tell your insurance broker if your personal details change. For example, you must tell us if you change your car, your address, who you want to be covered to drive your car, or if you have any penalty points or convictions.
- You or any person expecting to be covered must not admit liability for any accident.
- You or a driver of your car must not respond to any letter or court writ from any person claiming against you or them.
- You and the driver of your car must help us to defend a claim and cooperate with us to do so.
- You must allow us to defend or otherwise deal with any claim against you or another driver in any manner we see fit.
- You or the driver of your car must allow us to take legal action in your or their name to recover amounts we have to pay if we can do so.
- You must repay any amount claimed that the law requires we pay, but this contract does not cover.

When and how do I pay?

You must pay or make arrangements to pay before cover starts. You must pay the premium to your broker who will advise you what payment methods they accept. Your broker may advise you about financing options. Such finance is not provided by us.

When does cover start and end?

Cover starts on the date and time agreed with your broker and once you have paid or made arrangements to pay the premium. Cover will last for one year, expiring at 23:59 hours the day before the start date anniversary, unless you or we cancel it beforehand.

How do I cancel the contract?

You must send your certificate and insurance disc back to your broker and ask them to request us to cancel the policy.
